West Side School

We have now completed half of our school work. Everybody is ready to improve the last half.
The P. T. A. held its regular meeting in the West Side auditorium Friday, January 11th, at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Knowlton, the home demonstration lady, was out here for the purpose of organizing a lady's community club. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. H. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. Jones Allen; secretary-treasurer, Miss Selma Brannen. A number of parents were present.
Miss Knowlton was also present at a 4-H club meeting here Friday. The club has been doing good work this term.
We have now received our books from the state library. This makes us better prepared for our work.
Little fear is now expressed as to solvency of our government. Treasury officials say that $50,000,000,000 would not be an excessive debt for so rich a country.
The president's budget message was predicted upon the theory that it would be possible to achieve a smaller deficit in the 1935 fiscal year than in the 1934. Federal bookkeeping today is done under a sort of dual system. One set of books takes care of the regular budget. Another involves emergency expenditures. The view of the administration, are much like war expenses and so cannot be carried on the books as normal spending. This system has led to considerable confusion of the public which has been told, on the one hand, that the government is cutting down costs, while on the other hand, it sees the deficit and taxes constantly rising.
Estimated receipts for the 1935 fiscal year regular budget total $3,422,000,000—an advance of $229,000,000 over 1934. Estimated expenditures are $3,302,000,000, a rise of $54,000,000. This leaves an encouraging estimated surplus, as far as regular income and spending is concerned, of $120,000,000.
The next step, however, concerns the emergency budget. The administration plans to spend some $4,582,000,000 for extraordinary purposes, as opposed to an income of $570,000,000 which will come from various AAA activities. This leaves a deficit of $4,012,000,000.
As a result, total expenditures for "regular" and "extraordinary" budgets will be $7,884,000,000, a drop of $124,000,000 from 1934. Total receipts from all sources will be $3,992,000,000, a rise of $280,000,000 from the preceding fiscal year. The total net deficit will thus be $3,892,000,000 ($4,000,000 less than the 1934 deficit) which must be added to the soaring national debt, bringing it close to the $35,500,000,000 mark.
There is the budget situation in a nutshell. Great as the deficit is, the president and many financial experts say it is "well within the nation's resources." It remains a fact, however, that the national debt must eventually be paid—and that in the meantime hundreds of millions a year must be spent for interest. All of this money has to be raised by taxation, and the greater the debt, the greater the burden on industry—and the less money it has for other purposes. Nineteen thirty-six interest expenditures, for example, will come to the neat sum of $875,000,000, a jump of $40,000,000 over the 1935 fiscal term.
To get away from the economic aspects of the budget, one of its most interesting phases is the proposed expenditure of $900,000,000 for national defense. If congress authorized this expenditure, as it probably will, 1936 will witness the greatest "peace-time war expenses" in the nation's history. The president announced these figures without comment—it is obvious, however, that they are principally made necessary by Japan's abrogation of the naval treaty. Two years from now, when the treaty expires, Japan will start to build naval craft on a grand scale, and the United States must keep up with it. At the present time, our naval strength is well below our treaty limit. This tonnage deficit will be made up, for the most part, within the next two years.
Business is quiet since the holiday spurt and reports are neither encouraging nor discouraging. There have been a few small advances in various lines, while no industry has fallen back. Steel output recently registered a gain with the outlook good for increased demand. Trade has been improving, and a late week showed a 16 per cent.

NEWS OF THE WEEK
OVER THE NATION

HAPPENINGS THAT AFFECT DIN-NER PAIRS, DIVIDEND CHECKS
AND TAX BILLS OF PEOPLE.

Ask a dozen economists this question: "How great a debt can the federal credit stand?" The chances are that you will get a dozen different and opposed answers.
Not so many years ago financial authorities fearfully forecast that the national debt would soon reach the $10,000,000,000 mark, said that this would mean the beginning of a collapse in the nation's credit. Today the debt has passed $30,000,000,000, and some authorities believe that it will reach $50,000,000,000 before many more years have passed.
Little fear is now expressed as to solvency of our government. Treasury officials say that $50,000,000,000 would not be an excessive debt for so rich a country.
The president's budget message was predicted upon the theory that it would be possible to achieve a smaller deficit in the 1935 fiscal year than in the 1934. NEW PRINTING COMPANY
ASKING FOR BUSINESS

A new enterprise which is being installed in Statesboro is the Earl Kennedy Printing Company, with offices on North Main street in the building formerly occupied by Russell Studio. Mr. Kennedy is a Bulloch county young man, son of Mrs. Margie Kennedy. For some time he was employed in local job printing offices, later moving to Savannah where he worked for a year or more. With an entirely new outfit and new supplies he is bidding for a share of the public patronage.

WILL RENDER HELP TO BIRTHDAY BALL

WESTERN UNION OFFERS TO TRANSMIT WITHOUT COST
NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has placed its nation-wide system of Telegraph offices at the disposal of the President's Birthday Ball committee for receiving twenty-five cents from each person who places his signature on a multiple signature birthday greeting, the words of which are as follows:
"Happy birthday, Mr. President. I am proud to know that the cost of sending this greeting will help in the great fight against infantile paralysis, to which you have given your leadership and loaned your birthday."
Signatures from every city, town and hamlet will be mailed to New York, where they will be bound into a book, which will be the greatest birthday greeting in history. One hundred per cent of the money will be turned over to the National Birthday Ball committee which will arrange for proper credit for each community.

HOLD HOG SALE
NEXT THURSDAY

The second hog sale for 1935 will be held at the Georgia Florida pens here January 31. Hogs have been listed from only three counties so far for this sale, which indicates that the sale Thursday will not carry the tonnage that the last sale carried. The sale of January 10 moved a grand total of 173,895 pounds of live hogs from here.
The present indications point to about the same price as received two weeks ago, which was $6.35 per hundred on the old basis of grading. Old basis of grading will be continued at the Statesboro pens for the remainder of the season.

1935 Cotton Limited
To 10,500,000 Bales

Cotton production for 1935 was set last week at 10,500,000 bales of 500 pounds each by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. This represents an increase of approximately 1,224,000 bales over 1934. Georgia's 1934 allotment of 874,654 bales was raised about 5.1 per cent.
If all who signed contracts last year and a majority of those who did not sign contracts take advantage of rental and benefit payments, approximately $130,000,000 will be paid out under the voluntary program, according to Secretary Wallace.
Georgia's estimated increased allotment does not take into consideration that the act is to be amended so as to exempt producers who grow less than two bales.
Advance in bank debits outside of New York City. Electric power shows a slight gain and tends steadily upward. Business activity as a whole is getting better.

Big industries, in company with government, are anxiously awaiting the supreme court's decision on the gold forfeiture cases, which will be handed down early in February. If the court decides that holders of gold bonds and gold certificates must be paid on the basis of the old 100-cent dollar, as specified in the bonds held by individuals who loaned their money to the government and many industries, instead of the present $54 dollar, the nation's public and private debt will show a paper rise of more than $60,000,000,000. Attitude of the justices, during the argument of the cases, frankly worried administration officials.

DID STATESBORO
ENTERTAIN GANG?

THREE STRANGERS IN CAR
GAVE THRILL TO WORKMEN
AT LOCAL GARAGE.

Was Statesboro host last week to a trio of noted wanted men?
This question will probably never be definitely answered, but there is a working crew at Averitt Bros. repair place who tremble even yet every time they hear a twig break or leaf rustle. And this is what happened: Three strangers riding in a car with a Florida tag drove hurriedly into the repair place and urged that they wanted some work done immediately. While negotiating over the job, two of the men got out, and each walked swiftly to the doors at opposite ends of the shop. Not a movement inside the shop or out escaped their observation. Speed was the thing they urged. No mechanic was permitted to go into the front or rear of the car, the back seat of which was filled with a pile which was covered by a canvas. A local traveling man walked into the garage casually while the negotiations were still in progress, and the two strangers quickly approached him as if intent upon hearing every word he spoke. When the traveling man walked out, the strangers suddenly decided they didn't have the time to wait for the wanted repairs. Quickly getting into their car, they sped away, not slowly as casual tourists do, but hurriedly.
The workmen breathed easier when the trio had gone, for it was a suspicious looking outfit, and the workmen at Averitt Bros. place are always averse to being made the storm center of a possible shooting episode. Three days later an episode in Atlantic City, N. J., seemed to involve the same sort of outfit—men and car bearing a Florida tag. Anyhow, Statesboro escaped.

WEED CONTRACTS
BEING EXTENDED

FLUE-CURED TOBACCO GROW-
ERS BE GIVEN MORE FAVOR-ABLE ADJUSTMENTS.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace has extended into 1935 the two-year adjustment contracts signed last winter by producers of flue-cured tobacco grown in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. An administrative ruling accompanying the notice of extension of the contracts makes optional certain modifications in the contracts.
The policy of extension provided that the contract shall be continued in 1935 with the same force and effect as in 1934, with the following changes:
(1) The tobacco acreage allotment and the initial production allotment are changed from seventy per cent of the base tobacco acreage and production to eighty-five per cent.
(2) The reduction is one-half as large as it was in 1934 and the rates of the adjustment and deficiency payments are reduced one-half. The rate of the adjustment payment in 1935 will be six and one-fourth per cent of the net sale value of the crop and the rate of the deficiency payment is one cent per pound.
(3) The rental payment, which will remain at $17.50, will be made after compliance is checked, whereas in 1934 the payment was made after acceptance of the contract.
Under the administrative ruling, the (1) The acreage of tobacco planted may be as much, but not more than ninety per cent of the base tobacco acreage, provided the rental payment is reduced to one-half of the amount of the payment that would have been made if the acreage planted did not exceed eighty-five per cent of the base tobacco acreage.
(2) A quantity of tobacco equal to not more than twelve and one-half per cent of the initial production allotment specified in the contract may be sold in the open market. The reduction allotment, provided the rate of the adjustment payment is reduced progressively from the six and one-fourth per cent specified in the notice of extension of the contract to zero when sales reach the twelve and one-half per cent figure.

SIX ARE HURT IN HIGHWAY WRECK

CAR OVERTURNS WITH PARTY
OF COLLEGE STUDENTS RE-TURNING FROM SAVANNAH.

Miss Verna Lasseter, of Atlanta, and Miss Cassie Bolton, of Rocky Ford, are in the local hospital suffering from more or less serious injuries, and Miss Helen McElveen, of Concord; Miss Grace McNorrell and Miss Mary Small, of Statesboro, and Alton Ellis, of Griffin, bear less serious injuries as a result of an accident on the highway Tuesday afternoon. All those named are connected with the Teachers College, Miss Small being head of the art department and the other five being students.
The party had been in Savannah in car belonging to Miss McElveen, which was being driven by Miss Small. In some unaccountable way the car got out of her control while traveling at a rapid rate and overturned on the slippery pavement. Miss Small was thrown first from the car, while the others were extricated after the wreck.
Miss Lasseter and Miss Bolton each suffered injuries to the scalp which necessitated surgical treatment; Misses McElveen and McNorrell also had slight scalp injuries. The injuries to the ankles and wrists of Miss Small only scratched. The car was almost completely demolished.

Special Program
For Ivanhoe Club

The women's section of the Ivanhoe Community Club decided at the last meeting of the club to have an extra meeting each month for the purpose of carrying out special home demonstration programs.
The first meeting of this kind was held Wednesday, January 16. The group of ladies with the home demonstration agents made a trip to the woods for the purpose of identifying native shrubbery. Instructions were given for pruning and planting the shrubs and trees that were dug in the woods.
It was decided that the next meeting of the women's section will be held on February 8 at the home of Mrs. E. B. Martin. At this meeting Miss Gladys Kimbrough, of the Ball Brothers Company, will give a meat canning demonstration to the group.

DR. TEMPLES COMES

Dr. Temple, who was reared in this community, was graduated from the Statesboro High School and later from the State University Medical College. For three years after his graduation he practiced at the University Hospital and more recently has been practicing at a government camp in North Carolina.

Committee Favors
Talmadge Bills

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 21 (GPI).—Approved by the house and senate committee on state of republic with little discussion, major features of Governor Talmadge's program in the present biennial session of the Georgia legislature have been approved and made ready for action. The measures were:
1. Four-year term of office for the governor and other constitutional officers of the state, attorney general, secretary of state, comptroller general, treasurer.
2. Election by the people of a lieutenant governor to serve four years.
3. Naming of the proposed lieutenant as presiding officer of the senate.
4. Four-year term for commissioner of commerce and labor. (This position has been held for many successive terms by Hal M. Stanley, former newspaper man, and executive secretary of the Georgia Press Association, elected year after year for many years.)
5. Four-year term for commissioner of agriculture.
6. Four-year term for state school superintendent.
7. The governor would have power to limit in his call the length of an extra session.
8. Setting aside of $50,000 annually from state income taxes to be used in refunding illegally collected income taxes.
9. Measure to abolish the office of state veterinarian and placing work in hands of commissioner of agriculture.
10. Measure to divert $2,000,000 in highway funds to pay state debts.
The senate committee reported out the new ratifying Talmadge's executive order on $3 auto tags, and his bill for a highway patrol and a uniform driver's license also was adopted. With only two exceptions, all the legislative bills sponsored by Governor Talmadge are well on their way to final consideration in the lower branch of the general assembly.

Hal Stanley Acts
At Labor Session

(By Georgia Newspaper Alliance)
Hal M. Stanley, commissioner of commerce and labor and executive of the Georgia Press Association, reported Governor Talmadge at the regional conference on labor legislation, called by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and held last Sunday and Monday in Nashville, Tenn.
Governor Talmadge was unable, due to the general assembly session, to accept the invitation to meet with the governors of eleven other southern states, so he appointed Commissioner Stanley Georgia's official representative.

The commerce and labor commissioner was accompanied by Dr. Robert Elazer, educational director of the Extension on Inter-Racial Co-operation. Governors and official state representatives of Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia were also present.

Some experts say that the next war will be fought in the air. The hot air, however, as usual, will come first—from the non-combatants.

When the Times Visited Mexico

In the last Sunday edition of the Atlanta Georgia there appeared another of the remembrances being written by one Telamon Cuyler pertaining to the period of a generation ago, which series has been running for several weeks.

Forty years ago, Mr. Cuyler had some sort of affiliation with the newspaper business, and many of his articles have had to do with that phase of his activity. The Sunday article above referred to dealt with a trip made by the Georgia Press Association to the City of Mexico in 1894, and among the names listed as present on that trip was that of A. C. Turner, then editor of the Bulloch Times.

It is this reference to the former editor, now no longer in life, which justifies this reminiscence.

Contrary to the statement made in the Georgia article, A. C. Turner did not go to Mexico City with the press party, though he did go part of the way. Instead of making the entire trip, he spent almost a week in Austin, Texas, and thereby hangs a tale.

Along about 1890 there went to Clearwater, Fla., from Alabama a Methodist preacher named McSpadden, who was engaged in horse trading. With him was a son named Jimmie, a young man of maturity, about the same age of the A. C. Turner mentioned in the paragraphs above. Young McSpadden and young Turner became to be intimate friends.

The McSpaddens, father and son, remained at Clearwater for two years, and then returned to Alabama, where father was sent to Indian Territory as a missionary to the Indians from the Methodist church, and settled at Tahlequah. Young Jim McSpadden reached manhood there and married a young Indian maiden. For many years McSpadden and Turner carried on a correspondence with more or less regularity.

It was thirty years later that this press trip to Mexico offered A. C. Turner, he believed, an opportunity to visit his boyhood friend, Jimmie McSpadden. He planned to accompany the press party to a point near Tahlequah and drop off there for the few days which would intervene till the party's return. At Dallas, Texas, he quit the party and took the train to Dennison, Texas, from which point he planned to go by coach to the point in Indian Territory where his friend lived. Everything went well till he was told at Dennison that the coach route to Tahlequah was very uncertain. The roads were bad and there was question about his being able to make the trip there and back in time to join the press party on its return from Mexico City. Mr. Turner abandoned his trip at Dennison. Jim McSpadden died at Tahlequah fifteen years ago. A. C. Turner died at Clearwater, Fla., five years ago. They never met from that time in the early '60s when they were boyhood friends.

Some years ago Will Rogers, the national humorist, was in a hospital in Los Angeles for an operation. Writing of his stay there, he mentioned a visit from his sister, Mrs. Tom McSpadden, from Chelsea, Oklahoma. Inquiry disclosed that Tom McSpadden, Will Rogers' brother-in-law, was the youngest brother of Jim McSpadden. Thus the Times claims a sort of vested right in Will Rogers which existed even before Will himself came into the world.

Warnock School

Although our enrollment has not reached the number that it was before Christmas, we feel that our work is progressing. This progress is due largely to the co-operation we have received from the local P-T-A. as well as from the patrons generally.

Supplementary readers have been added to all the primary and elementary grades and a number of reference books have been added to each department of the junior high school work. We are having built book cases for the rooms for the purpose of keeping each teacher's supplementary materials in a safe and convenient place. We also have purchased globes, erasers, a supply of crayons and two brooms for each of the rooms. A new pump has been installed for the well. We plan to further improve our campus by planting new shrubbery.

The program at the next meeting of the P-T-A. will be dedicated to the fathers of the school. Our fatherly night programs are always most delightful, and we are looking forward to this as another enjoyable occasion. A special letter will be sent to each father regarding this program, and we wish to remind the members of the fathers of the school. A WORTHWHILE PROGRAM

The recent proposal that railroad grade-crossing elimination be made a part of federal relief work during the current year is finding increasing support.

It is supported by safety authorities, who know that such a program would do much to reduce and even eliminate the great loss of life annually due to crossing accidents. It is supported by railroad men who know that it would expedite and improve service. It is supported by state governments, which realize the need for crossing elimination but have no funds to do general public and the business man who knows that no form of public works could do more to take up the slack in employment and stimulate heavy industries while at the same time not interfering with any private endeavors.

The last phase of the proposal is not especially important, inasmuch as federal funds are disbursed with the principal stress laid on getting maximum employment for each dollar spent and encouraging private enterprise. In grade-crossing elimination, the greatest part of the money would go to workers, both on the job and in factories supplying cement, steel and other materials. And the revivifying effect of this would give impetus to employment.

Safety, employment and public welfare will all be advanced if the government accepts the proposal. There are some 30,000 grade crossings which have no protection and each year thousands of lives are unnecessarily wasted because of accidents occurring at them. Here the government has an opportunity to be of the utmost service to all the people—Industrial News Review.

Most any automobile will stop after it has been hit. The real inventor is the one who will make one that stops ten feet short of being hit.

If paying an old age pension of $200 will restore prosperity, why not give us $1,000 a month and maybe we will be rich enough to drive a Rolls Royce.

WHO SUFFERS MOST

It should be everlastingly emphasized that the tax problem is every citizen's problem—whether he is a millionaire or a worker for wages.

It should likewise be emphasized that the tax problem is of greater significance to the man of small means than to the man with large means. In spite of all the talk about "taxing the rich," government subsidies principally from revenue derived from taxes on things bought by the millions of representative Americans. The rich are taxed heavily, it is true—but revenue from that source is barely makes a dent in governmental receipts. The rich are so few and far between, especially in these days, that if government confiscated all their wealth it would soon be bankrupt without additional funds.

It has been reliably estimated that 20 per cent of an annual family income of $2,000 goes for taxes. Little of it is paid in direct taxes—and that fact has led to the erroneous belief that people with small means escape paying for government. That belief should be thoroughly exploded—every bag of groceries, every gallon of gasoline, every pair of shoes you buy, is taxed. If you rent your home, part of the rental represents taxes which the owner of the house must pay. If you take a trip on a train, the heavy taxes paid by the railroads are reflected in the cost of tickets. If you turn on a light, about 15 per cent of your electric bill goes for taxes.

The average citizen acts as much, wears as many clothes and moves about as much as do people with much larger means. As a result, it is this average citizen who is most seriously affected by economical, efficient and thrifty government.

When these facts are realized by the American people, there will be a campaign for tax reduction that will not confine itself to pretty speeches, but will get results—Industrial News Review.

The trouble with a lot of fellows is that the things they learn by experience are the things they ought not know.

HAUPTMANN CASE
COSTING MILLION

$600,000 CAR FARE; $60,000 LAWYERS' FEES; $25,000 REWARD; $10,000 FOR CONDON.

Plenington, N. J., Jan. 20.—The case of the state vs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann will go down in the books as the million-dollar murder trial. Perhaps seven figures will not fully measure its cost. Accurate figures are impossible, and even an approximation is difficult.

There are certain definite costs which may be set down. There is the $50,000 ransom that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh paid (through Dr. John F. Condon as intermediary) to a man purporting to represent the kidnappers of the Lindbergh baby. Only a portion of this has been recovered. There is the $25,000 reward which the state of New Jersey is expected to pay in the event Hauptmann is convicted.

There is the sum of about $10,000 which Dr. Condon has said he spent in years of personal effort to find the mysterious "John" to whom he made the ransom payment—the man he now says was Hauptmann.

But over and beyond these amounts, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been and are being spent in the conduct of the trial and in the dissemination of the news of it.

Witnesses have been brought from Scotland and Germany at the expense of the state of New Jersey. Their fares must be paid, and they must be reimbursed for their time and for their expenses.

Then there are the lawyers, the jurors, the scores of witnesses for both state and defense, and the expert evidence which was costly in preparation, requiring in some cases more than a year of painstaking study. The highest ranking prosecuting officer of the state—the attorney general—is conducting the case, reinforced by a staff of special counsel.

The defense is headed by one of New York City's best known criminal trial lawyers. It has been said that the cost of the trial and in the dissemination of the news of it, the defense general—conducting the case, reinforced by a staff of special counsel.

The cost of wires alone to carry the news from the quiet countryside village to the end of the world represents a fortune. Wire company spokesmen were quoted before the trial as saying the case would have to run for two weeks before their initial investment in wires, equipment and other necessities for transmission would be returned. This is in the face of the fact that an estimated 6,000,000 words have been filed, with the defense's case as yet unrepresented.

For the handling of the transcript of the trial alone three separate circuits are required. More than 400 special writers are pouring out their accounts of the trial daily, in addition to elaborate staffs maintained by the press associations and by the New York City newspapers. Automobiles, motorcycles and airplanes are required each day for the speeding of pictures to newspapers. Scores of cameramen and sketch artists are employed in the job of letting the world look into the century-old court house where the full energy of a sovereign state is being exerted in solving the record of the solution of the baby murder of the Sordland Hills.

The total cost to New Jersey, New York state and the federal government in their long investigation of the case, which would be difficult to determine accurately, so widespread has been the hunt.

Considering the trial will require thirty days, the following figures give an approximation of the cost:

Reward by state of New Jersey (if Hauptmann is convicted), $25,000; ransom money paid by Lindbergh, $50,000; sum spent by Dr. Condon in personal hunt for kidnappers, $10,000; radio (wires, commentators, time, etc.), $30,000; witnesses, transportation (from Europe), $20,000; deputation cost, including admission tickets, miscellaneous expenses, $20,000; jury, salary and expense, $15,000; lawyers, (prosecution, defense and personal expenses), $20,000; transcripts of testimony, court stenographers, etc., $10,000; reporters, special writers, photographers, artists, etc., $15,000; wire costs, messengers, telephone and telegraph operators, airplanes (for speeding pictures), $10,000; bus and private car costs (at $20,000 a day), $60,000; living costs of trial attendants (press radio, etc.), $30,000; preliminary cost in seeking perpetrator of crime (United States, New Jersey and New York police work, experts, expenses, Bronx grand jury—which indicted Hauptmann for extortion, kidnapping, etc.), $60,000; cost to newspapers and others in private enterprises seeking to solve murder, $20,000; total, $1,091,000; less ransom money recovered, $14,800; total cost, $1,076,200.

Comfort Zone Riding

ON THE AIR—FORD SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, Sunday Evenings 7:30 P.M., Thursday Evenings 8:00 P.M. COLUMBIA NET WORK

IT MAKES no difference where you sit in the new Ford V-8. Even back seat passengers enjoy "the comfort of a front seat ride."

It took a major engineering development to make this possible—the full-floating Springbase with Comfort Zone Seating. Notice how the springs are mounted beyond the axles... how the seats are cradled in the easy-riding zone between the springs. Notice what a difference this makes—in everyone's comfort!

But Comfort Zone Riding is only one reason why you'll want a Ford V-8 in 1935. You'll want it for its V-8 power—for the beauty of its streamlined body and interior appointments—for its new roominess—its new easy-pressure brakes and clutch—its new, larger tires—the safety of its welded, all-steel body and safety glass all around (at no extra cost)!

About People and Things in Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22 (G.P.S.).

Georgia motorists are estimated to have paid $14,610,000 in state gasoline taxes in 1934, as compared with $12,634 in 1933. Maybe it's about time that motorists get a little reduction in their state gas tax. Decision to take strong action to effect a reduction in the gasoline taxes in Florida (which incidentally is getting the tourist travel) was reached at a meeting in Miami the other day by the state petroleum committee of the National Recovery Administration.

Wiley L. Moore, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and identified with many civic movements in Georgia, attended the meeting. Mr. Moore is regional chairman of the second district of the petroleum committee under the National Recovery Administration, which district comprises the southeastern states.

While Georgia's representatives in congress fought to keep free the state's embryonic pine paper industry from possible cost restrictions, definite indications that Georgia newspaper will be manufactured on a large scale were revealed here this week. Predicting that five to eight newspaper plants will be operated in the south in a year or two, W. H. Barnwell, of the Georgia Power Company, announced in Atlanta that the utility's industrial division is making a survey of the home, Ga., area for a potential pulp manufacturing plant. Similar surveys in regions around Brunswick and Savannah have revealed rich resources in pulpwood and other favorable conditions for newspaper plants. Mr. Barnwell said. He added that the outlook was extremely favorable for some company to enter the fields at Brunswick or Savannah soon. It is said that Florida has exempted any paper manufacturers that may come in the state from taxation for 15 years. It would be a product, because of latest regulations of the Internal Revenue Department which are now to be strictly enforced, according to information received in Atlanta.

RUNNIN' THE RABBIT

By REV. C. M. LIPHAM, in Atlanta Journal

Dear Old Man Rabbit, he will come back to where you jumped him."

That was a saying that came to be a frame-work on which much of life's philosophy has hung for me.

When the black hounds were my kingdom, and my dog Oris was both entertainer and interpreter of many of life's deeper meanings, I had many a laugh, as well as many a sober moment with him. He had to make the most of life, and so did I.

While I went the weary rounds of the long rows, he went on his rounds in quest of whatever he could find along the ditch banks and the furrowed ravines down next to the river. It was a rabbit's paradise where he found the streamlets came from the hills of great ends in life. They seem to single out the worthwhile things to which the future belongs, and get on their trail and stay. Their very being and these aims are one.

The people who only stand for the small catch in the trail, and that, incidentally, can be wooed away by almost any call. They are the ones who desert the preacher and the meetin' house when the trail leads into the difficult. They do not seem to find anything outside themselves that they can love with their hearts, and had rather hold on to personal ease on Sunday morning than to keep to the trouble of goin' to meetin'. But among the crash of fallin' aims and purposes of the many, there are some who, when they wear their serious down a bit, and they are outdistanced, will, like my dog Oris, go back to the spot where they first contacted the object of their quest, and wait there for his return to possess it again for their very own.

I believe the reason why we have such an aimless, futile Christianity today, is that so many have refused to go to their altars where they first found their religion. They people I have met in life who carried the flag-staff with the colors, most of them were just plain people of ordinary origin who found great and unselfish aims, and identified themselves with them, returnin' each Sabbath to the sources from which these aims came as if to wait for the incomin' of fresh glories.

Anyhow, an experienced dog knows that if he jumps a rabbit and begins to wear down in the chase, he can go back to the place where he started, and soon he will consummate his catch. If you are goin' to run with me at the meetin' house this year, you may expect the circuit to bend in toward the cradle of our faith and wait there, where he started for a new beginnin', or else we may miss the great ends of life.

RING IN THE NEW

Ring in the reading, thinking farmer who intelligently applies scientific principles to farming.

Ring in the self-sustaining farmer of producing first the needs of the home and farm and then the money crops.

Ring in the use of better seeds for surer yields and more better livestock to balance the farming system.

Ring in the determination to make the farm a real home, comfortable, attractive and satisfying, to which the family will cling.

Ring in the new spirit of co-operation with fellow farmers back and near, working for the welfare of all as well as of the individual.

Easy Pleasant Way

To Lose Fat

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get an 85-cent bottle of Kruschen Salt which will last you four weeks. Take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends—"A quarter pound of Kruschen Salt is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money."
